Physical Description:

12.5 linear feet of manuscript material, including 152 reel-to-reel tapes and 36 video materials

Languages:

English

Dates:

1950-2013

Repository:

Center for Popular Music, Middle Tennessee State University, Murfreesboro, TN 37132, (615) 898-2449

RESTRICTIONS:

All materials in this collection are subject to standard national and international copyright laws. Center staff are able to assist with copyright questions for this material. Manuscript Box 27-28 is restricted for open use to ensure privacy of personal information. These material may be made available at the archivists' discretion and with prior arrangements.

Provenance and Acquisition Information:

This collection was donated to the Center by Lanny LeRoy, son of Lance LeRoy. Center for Popular Music Director Greg Reish picked up the collection from the home of Mr. LeRoy in Hendersonville, TN and transported it to the Center on July 23, 2014.

Preferred Citation: (Box Number, Folder Number/Name), Lance LeRoy Collection 14-008, Center for Popular Music, Middle Tennessee State University, Murfreesboro, Tennessee.

Arrangement:

The original arrangement scheme for the collection was maintained during processing. The exception to this arrangement was the audio/visual materials, which in the absence of any original order, are organized by format; larger photograph files in the manuscript collection were moved to one box for preservation and storage purposes. Digital media that were located on discs in the collection are now stored on the CPM server. Please contact center staff for access to these items.

Agency History/Biographical Sketch:

Lance LeRoy, from northern Georgia, was an artist manager and agent who started the Lancer Agency. Through his company, he most notably represented Lester Flatt & The Nashville Grass from 1969 to 1979, followed by the group The Bluegrass Cardinals. Mr. LeRoy produced photographs and articles for bluegrass trade magazines including Bluegrass Unlimited. His photographs were used as publicity photographs for many of the artists he represented. He often wrote liner notes for their albums. LeRoy brought many industry leaders together and led various meetings that would develop into the International Bluegrass Music Association (IBMA) in 1985. Mr. LeRoy received the IBMA Award of Merit (Distinguished Achievement Award) in 1994 and was inducted into The International Bluegrass Hall of Fame in 2000. Lance LeRoy passed on December 17, 2015 at the age of 84.

Scope and Content:

This collection consists of materials collected and used by artist manager Lance LeRoy and his agency company the Lancer Agency. The manuscript papers consist of handwritten notes, newspaper clippings, articles from magazines, correspondence, photographs, performance documents, various industry contracts, forms, and accounting records. Also included are reel to reel tapes of performances.

Collection Contents (Folder/Box List):

Materials Cataloged Separately:

Per Center policy, certain formats are cataloged separately for accessibility, including digital materials listed above, video and sound recording materials. [For a complete list of separated materials, please contact the archivist.]

Location:

All manuscript materials are located in the special collections storage area filed by accession number. Audio/visual materials are located in special collections storage area. Digital files are located on Center's internal server, ask archivist for access.

Related Materials:

The Center holds other bluegrass related manuscript collections, notably the Doug Seroff Country Music Collection, Tom Morgan Collection (still in process) and the Charlie Walker Collection. Special collection sheet music, performance documents, trade catalogs, photographs, sound recordings, rare books, and reading room materials related to the subjects of bluegrass and country music are also held by the Center and searchable through the CPM website database or MTSU Walker Library catalog.
